May you and your family enjoy a bountiful Thanksgiving, a joyous Holiday Season and a healthy and Happy New Year!

Ann Marie Holder

Colombo Kitchin Welcomes New Attorneys

Colombo Kitchin Attorneys is proud to announce that Ann Marie Holder and James "Jay" R. Holland have joined the firm.

Ann Marie Holder was born in the British West Indies but grew up in St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands where she attended high school and college. After graduating from Georgetown University Law Center, she moved to Massachusetts where she worked in big and small firm practices, public counsel service, and the Governor's Legal Counsel Office. She and her husband, David, moved to Greenville, North Carolina nine years ago with their three daughters.

Ann Marie will practice in the areas of administrative law, estate and trust planning and administration, contract disputes and civil litigation.

Jay Holland is relocating to the area from Wilmington, North Carolina. He previously practiced law in Raleigh, North Carolina, after graduating from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He and his wife, Brandi, have three sons.

Jay will practice in the areas of administrative law, insurance litigation, trust and estates litigation and construction law.
